“ My dear brother and sister Mosby, I am so sorry that you lost your dear Michael. Remember dear ones that death is only temporary, and Michael is asleep in Jehovah's memory. Whenever you are feeling overwhelmed with sadness, reflect on Jehovah's wonderful promises. One of those promises that I really hold dear is found at Isiah 65:17 where Jehovah tells us that even the memory of this sad world will be erased from our memory when we get to that promised new paradise. A scripture that I find really comforting when I am grieving over my own dead son is found at Isiah 66:13 which says, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people." Keep enduring dear ones, and always have plenty to do in the work of the Lord. I know that when I lost my son 12 years ago, going out in the ministry really helped me to cope, and by striving to help others, it helped me to keep my mind off my own troubles. So stay in the ministry, stay close to the friends, and most of all pour out your hearts to our loving heavenly father Jehovah, and he will sustain you. May your precious memories of Michael be a comfort to you until the glorious day of the resurrection arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Mosby's I would like to express my fellow feeling to my spiritual family in our circle of life being broken . It is so wonderful to know that in the near future no one will ever die again. I am looking forward to that as well as you all are too. There are so many things we will be able to share with our love ones as we know that Jehovah cares so much for mankind, 1 Peter 5:7. May all the 20 years of sharing with Mcihael help each day as we keep getting close to the paradise.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I'm deeply sorry to hear the passing of Michael. He was a very nice young man. The last time that I saw him was at the assembly hall in which I told him that I was the aunt to Michael, Myron, and Mylita Taylor. His uncle Vincent was my brother in law. I do hope to see Michael in the New Order##imported-begin##Darlynn Weaver##imported-end##

“ Please accept our deepest condolences for your loss. As you already know Jehovah God and his son Jesus Christ care deeply about you. Keep in mind this comforting promise found at Psalm 34:18,19: "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; And those who are crushed in spirit he saves. Many are the calamities of the righteous one, But out of them all Jehovah delivers him." May you receive much solace every time you think of this divinely inspired promise found in the Bible.##imported-begin##The Hills##imported-end##

“ to my dearest brother, sister, family and friends,I send my sincerest condolences. you are to me, in the truest sense, my beloved brother and sister. I can not even begin to feel your pain. nonetheless, my heart aches for you and your loss. Please, never forget the yearning that Jehovah has to bring you comfort and peace at this time. my heart is so full at this time. I wish that I had the ability to convey to you the need that I have to comfort you in this trial. please never forget the hope that we have and never forget that our God never runs out of anything that's good for us in every circumstance. Joshua 1:9 is my pet scripture, it helps me through many trials. It reads " have I not commanded you to be courageous and strong, do not suffer shock or be terrified, I am with you wherever you go". Our God is with us no matter what life or satan brings against us. please be strengthened by the love of God, by the love of all of us who love and care about you. I'm here for you!!! call me if you need to talk, cry, preach or whatever you need. kathy commander 443-682-9195###imported-begin###kathy commander###imported-end###

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end###
