“ To the family of Michael Featherstone, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of the death of Micheael. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ I wish to offer my sincere condolences. I know how hard it is to deal with the passing of a loved one, and my heart goes out to you all. May it comfort you to know that death is not the permanant end, because the dead will soon be brought back to life. Concerning this promise Jesus said: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." May you find much comfort in God"s word, the bible, and may your precious memories of Michael help you to cope in the days ahead. John 5:28,29##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
