

Michael J. Wallace

September 15, 1955 - November 5, 2003

Michael Joseph Wallace, father of Alessia Judith Kelley, son of Calvin R. Wallace and the late Ursula C. Wallace, quickly and suddenly departed this life on November 5, 2003. Michael graduated from Wilde Lake High School, Class of 1973. Michael completed culinary school in 1999; he had a passion for cooking and eating. Although Michael never married, on January 9, 1992 he was blessed with his beautiful daughter, Alessia Judith Kelley, who was conceived by his longtime companion, Betsy Kelley. Michael was a gentle giant. His dynamic, creative and versatile ways made him the perfect father. His important life lesson was to expand his vision. He had the unique ability to look at things in larger terms and with an unwavering belief in the power of faith. The drama of his personality was interior. To the world he gave the impression of calm authority, but he was aware of his own nervous, restless, controlled intensity. He took meticulous care and strived for perfection. His passion for life and all living creatures is the foundation for his kind and gentle demeanor. Though he was a son, yet he learned obedience by the things he suffered. – Hebrews 5:8 He leaves to mourn: his daughter, Alessia; father, Calvin; six sisters, Paula, Leslie, Cassandra, Pamela, Kimberly and Gina; two brothers, Alonza Brown and Tavon Wallace; three nieces, four nephews, aunts, uncles, godmother, other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the Family: I am sorry to hear of your loss. Death can be such a devastating blow. The Bible can be a wonderful comfort to us all. Revelation 21: 3,4, Jehovah God says that he will wipe the tears from all of our eyes and death will be no more. May your family find comfort from this scripture and many more found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Yolanda Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my deepest sympathy. During this difficult time may you draw comfort from, "...the Father of tender mercies...the God of all comfort, who comforts us during all our tribulation." 2Cor 1:3,4##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. Death is something that we never get used to because it separates us from our loved ones. It won't always be that way. Notice what God's Word says at Job 14:14,15-"If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." May this promise comfort you.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
