

Michael Jay Carter

September 6, 1952 - June 16, 2008

Michael J. Carter, son of the late Charles F. and Clementine Johnson Carter, was born on September 6, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on June 16, 2008 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in Baltimore public schools. In his early years he was employed at various jobs (mostly in home improvement). He loved this type of employment because he loved working with his hands. Michael did this type of work until the time that illness intervened. He was a people-person. Anyone that ever came into contact with him never forgot him. He loved family and friends. One child was born out of a previous marriage, Jay Carter (now deceased). He later married Deborah Belle and out of this union a son, Shaun; and a daughter, Precious were born. In addition to the above, Michael leaves to mourn: three sisters, Barbara A. Booker, Rhonda F. Harris- Williams and Janice M. Carter; one brother, Charles F. Carter Jr.; two brothers-in-law, Willie F. Booker and Henry Williams; also a host of other relatives and friends.

“ *I send my heartfelt condolences to the family. Although some months have gone past, nevertheless, we never ever forget our loved ones when they pass away. The passing of time only helps to heal our broken hearts. May the God of all comfort continue to be with you, and may his promise of the resurrection for the dead uplift your hearts, and help you to cope in the days to come. “ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. I know the sadness associated with the loss of one you love and I know the comfort offered by God in his word the Bible. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 which talks about the hope of a resurrection for the righteous and the unrighteous. After reading these two scriptures please turn your attention to John 3:16 and Matthew 20:28. These two scriptures tell us why we can put faith in the promise of a resurrection. May these provide you with comfort and hope as they have for me.###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##
