“ Wow, I was going through my college album and saw a picture of Michael and decided to google. Unfortunately, it led me to this page. Michael and I attended GMU together. What a beautiful soul gone too soon. Rest In Peace Michael.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. May family and friends be comforted by the wonderful promise at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away."

“ Wow, Michael...your family and friends are really having a time accepting "why" this happened, but as I reflect on every encounter that we've shared in our lifetime, I try to remind them of how and who you were and WHAT WOULD MIKE WANT US TO DO...and that seems to make things better. You always saw the light in any situation. You always saw the good in everything...that is what keeps me pushing fwd and for some reason, I truly believe that it's you within me that is giving me the strength TODAY to be strong. You know that I am the scaredy cat and the cry baby...who would ever think that I would be the one to say be strong and remember the good times? Trust, I feel you all around me and I am blessed to know that you now watch over me! Continue to give me the strength to be there for family...you know I need you! I love you and I truly miss you, but I'm glad you're my guardian angel. You always had faith in me and I won't let you down...RIP cousin...you have your halo now.
