“ My deepest condolences to the Johnson family for this tremendous loss. May the words found at Isaiah 26:19 bring you comfort in knowing that you will one day see Michael again.

Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life"

I grew up with michael. We rode the bus together from elementary school til he moved sometime around high school. We used to ride dirt bikes together. He always loved riding and talking about dirt bikes with me and my buddies. He would ride a couple miles down osborne turnpike to come ride and hang out after school. I was devastated when i found out he had passed years later as we lost touch as we grew older. I remember the last time i saw him, he was in the neighborhood and stopped by just to see how i was doing and to talk about riding. I will never forget michael, he was a good person and my friend. Rest in peace.
