

Michael K. Blackwell

February 13, 1967 - August 18, 2002

Michael K. Blackwell, son of Ervin Blackwell and Patricia Hill (stepfather, Charles Hill) was born on February 13, 1967. He departed this life suddenly on August 18, 2002, 9:45 p.m., at University of Maryland Hospital. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools, concluding at Southern Senior High School. Michael later entered the Job Corps Program, where he received a certificate for maintenance engineering, which prepared him for his future career. During his childhood and in later years, Michael would visit his neighborhood church. He also attended services with friends occasionally. Mike, as he was fondly called, was a joy to be around. He always had a kind smile and loving disposition. He loved children no matter the age. Sports were his favorite pastime. He often watched the Sunday games with his Poppy Phil, who he affectionately called Daddy-O. No matter the request, Mike was always willing to lend a helping hand. As everyone can attest to, Mike was especially fond of his baby sister, Candy. She was the princess of his life. He also shared a special relationship with his aunts, Carolyn and Queen. It was his aunt Queen who nicknamed him Tub Boat. He will be greatly missed by all that loved and knew him. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Patricia Hill; father, Ervin Blackwell; stepfather, Charles Hill; three sons all named Michael; two sisters, Cornella and Bridgette; two brothers, Ronnie and Eldewarn; grandmothers, Geneva Hurt and Viola Blackwell; grandfather, Ervin Blackwell, Sr.; six uncles, Raymond, Hurt, Freddie, Eddie, Jimmy and Chucky; four aunts, Carolyn, Irene, Janice and Tyese; nephews, nieces; great-uncle, Rufus Williams; a host of other relatives and friends.
