

Michael Kevin Davis

September 18, 1978 - February 14, 2009

MICHAEL KEVIN DAVIS JR., a son, brother, father, uncle, and friend who resided in Baltimore, Maryland, passed away suddenly as a result of senseless gun violence. He was thirty years old. Michael was born in Baltimore, Maryland, on September 18, 1978, to Michael Kevin Davis Sr. and Georgianna Theresa Randall. He grew up in Baltimore and attended Lombard Middle School. Michael received his GED in 2006. In his spare time he loved experimenting in the kitchen making new dishes. He also had the gift of writing poetry. Michael had a zest for life only matched by few and always placed family first. In 1994, Michael and Latoya Brown of Baltimore produced a daughter, Shade Davis. In 2003, Michael and Wykita Smith produced a son, Michael K. Davis, III. One of many proud family moments and memories for Michael was the day he attended the wedding of his mother Georgianna (Sassa) and his stepfather Derrick Tolliver. Michael is survived by: his mother, Georgianna; father, Michael; stepfather, Derrick; daughter, Shade; son, Little Michael; two brother, Damon Davis and Derrick Jones; three sister, Makeea Davis, Anita Jones and Letisha Davis; nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family and friends including Jamal Jones.

“ My condolences go's out to you and your family. Mikey was always my sweetheart, I remember when he was little and you lived in back of me and he would come and hang out with me in the yard and the other kids would be playing. He grow up and got away from me but, when ever I saw him he would give me a big hug and a smile. I will always remember him that way.##imported-begin##Cathy (Chapel Street)##imported-end##

“ To The Family & Friends of Michael Davis, Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. It is especially sad when death overtakes some so young. The Bible makes this comforting promise: “Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.” (Psalm 34:18) It also assures us: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) The Bible also teaches that the dead will live again. Jesus himself said: “I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” (John 11:25) Continue to draw close to the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time. Warmest regards, C. Murphy###imported-begin##C. Murphy###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Ezekiel 18:32 (New World Translation) lovingly informs us that Almighty God never takes "any delight in the death of someone". Also, Acts 24:15 (New World Translation) lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this Bible based hope.###imported-begin###Mrs. Sharon Hill###imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry that your loved one died such a senseless death at the hands of a fool. Even though I know how hard this must be for all of you, I want you to know that there is a bright light at the end of the tunnel. Jehovah God hates violence and all death, because he is the creator of all life and all that is good. Violence is also one of the signs Jesus gave to prove that we are in the last days, and very soon God is going to rise up and act against this violent and unjust world, and bring an end to those who commit such terrible atrocities. Psalm 37:10,11 tells us, "AND just a little while longer and the wicked one will be no more, and you will certainly give attention to his place and he will not be. "But the meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." What a comforting thought to contemplate knowing that soon we will have a peaceful world to live in. 2nd timothy 3:1-5 shows that we are in the last days, and John 5:28-29 lets us know that the dead will hear the voice of the son of God, Jesus, and they will come back to life from the memorial tombs. May you be comforted and sustained by the wonderful hope of the resurrection, and may your precious memories of Michael bring a smile to your hearts as you await the day when you can see him again.##imported-begin##R
