“ I would like to send my deepest sympathy to the entire manning family. Micheal was a loving, and caring family man. I worked with Mr. Manning a little over 3 years at Threshold and he always told me stories about his family especially his sisters who he loved so much. You all were very blessed to have him in your lives. When I moved to NC, I met Mrs. Terry and right off she reminded me of Mr. Mike. I called him and told him that I have a female manager that reminds me of him and he laughed and said, "I feel sorry for her, but there could only be one Michael Manning." Mrs. Terry, I am truly sorry for your loss, may god be with you and Dysia in your time of sorrow. Not everyone get a chance of happiness in their lifetime and although it may not have lasted a lifetime there was enough love between the two of you for your memories to last a lifetime. Please be strong and take care of yourself.##imported-begin##Roslyn McManus##imported-end##

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family at this most difficult time. The grief associated with losing a loved one can be truly overwhelming, and so hard to come to terms with. This was never God's purpose for us, and one day he promises to end all sickness and death in the very near future. Sadly, by their disobedience, Adam and Eve brought this legacy of sin and death upon all of us, but God knew that this was through no fault of our own, and because of his great love for us he purposes to right the wrong they brought upon us. Concerning this 1st Cor 15:22 makes this promise: "IN Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." So through the ransom sacrifice of our saviour Jesus, death will be abolished forever. Jehovah has given his son Jesus all authority to resurrect the dead, and according to John 5:26-29 they will hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs to life eternal. I hope these scriptures bring you much comfort, and a hope as an anchor for your souls.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My heart goes out to Terry, Johnnie Lee, and the entire Manning family. I will miss seeing Michael during the summer, at the inlet beach, talking and laughing about old friends and old times. Our main time to connect was during the summer. We are saddened by his passing, and he will be missed by his many longtime AC friends. Heartfelt prayers go out to the entire Manning family. Michael, we will miss you. With sincere sympathy, Linda##imported-begin##Linda Collins Steele##imported-end##
