“ His Journey's just begun Don't think of him as gone away... His journey's just begun; life holds so many facets... this earth is only one. Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years. Think how he must be wishing that we could know, today, how nothing but our sadness can really pass away. And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched.... for nothing loved is ever lost..... and he was loved so much.##imported-begin##Keisha##imported-end##

“ I send my warm and sincere condolences to the family. I know how difficult this must be for the family, because death is so hard to come to terms with, and your Michael was so very young. One day we will no longer have to go through such tragedies, because God has promised to wipe out every tear from our eyes, and such things as sickness, crime, violence, wars, hunger, accidents, terrorism, and all death will be no more. We will no longer have need for canes, wheelchairs, eye glasses, medicines, nurses, doctors or ceneraries, because Jehovah has promised to make all things new! Rev 21:5. He has promised a new world, a peaceful world, in which we will no longer have to face the problems of today. This was God's original purpose when he created Adam and Eve, and his purpose has not changed. 2nd Peter 3:13 speaks of a new earth in which righteousness is to dwell. Isaiah 33:24 says no resident will say, "I am sick. Isaiah 25:8 promises that Jehovah will swallow up death forever. Even the memory of this sad life will be forgotten, because Isaiah 65:17 says, "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind; neither will they come up into the heart. As you reflect on these scriptures may they bring you much comfort and encouragement, until Jehovah, through his son Jesus, brings about a paradise earth.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
