

Michael Meredith, Jr

April 1, 1968 - November 29, 2013

MICHAEL MEREDITH, JR. was born to the late Frank Michael and Clara Elaine Meredith on April 1, 1968 in Baltimore, Maryland. Michael, known to many as “Mike” or “Lil Mike,” suddenly departed this life on Friday, November 29, 2013.

Michael was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and later became skilled in carpentry and masonry work. He was a very fast learner and hard worker

Michael was employed as a construction worker for many years and gained plenty of experience alongside Uncle Clyde by assisting him with home and business projects. Being born on “April Fool’s Day” must have made Mike the clown he was and such a prankster. Wherever he was, he was sure to be the life of the party. Mike LOVED sports. Although he did not make it to the pros, he was still OUR STAR PLAYER. His biggest fans were his father “Big Mike” and Uncle “Wilco” who kept a book of all the newspaper clippings and photos throughout his Overlea High School years. Mike inherited the natural love for children and people from his aunts Barbara and Brenda and could actually get along with anyone, which was just a natural trait he had. No matter where Mike went he was sure to know at least one person. He had a special love for his daughter, future stepdaughter Dearthra, nieces and nephews and was always encouraging them to do well.

Michael leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Shawnice; stepmother, Helen; fiancée, Tawnya; sisters, Yuvonne, Kyia and Deirdra; stepbrothers, Roy and Antonio; uncles, Clyde, Elvin Sr., Clarence, Lawrence, Samuel, Andrew, Melvin and Andre; aunts, Rhonda, Terri Elaine, Diane, Elaine and Deiris; nieces, Sachet, LaVontae, Shekyra, Nydjah, LaRae, Amanda, Kendra, Kortney, Kadeirdra, Alyssa and LaShyah; nephew, Kwantrey; brother-in-law, Larry; special cousins, Sekou, Elvin Jr. and Kenny; and a host of other relatives and friends.
