

Michael Levi Mosby

June 22, 1952 - September 2, 2019

Michael Levi Mosby was born on June 22, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the oldest son of Emmitt and Dora Mosby. Sadly, he departed this life on September 2, 2019.

Michael attended Baltimore City Public Schools. His studies enabled him to successfully fulfill his high school graduation requirements as a result of passing his General Education Development exams (GED), Michael worked as a maintenance man for more than 20 years for various companies. He was also known for his mechanical and technical skills with vehicles, and he would often perform car repairs for family members, friends, coworkers, and neighbors.

Michael was a loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, cousin, a friend. He was a compassionate and kind man who went out of his way to support and nurture his family and friends. He was a devout Muslim for more than 47 years of his life and read his Quran frequently. Because of his faith, and his general love of all people, Michael saw himself as a teacher to his children, and as a leader for his family, friends, and community. He was a very philosophical man and some of his favorite words of wisdom and advice to others were: "Spend a dollar, save two" and "Think". Michael also had a great sense of humor, and everyone who knew him could count on him to cheer them up during touch times. In addition to having a sweet tooth for cakes and cookies, Michael had a green thumb. He loved to take care of his garden and his household plants. He often told his children that taking care of his plants brought him a sense of peace.

Michael met the love of his life, his wife, Helen Eaton Mosby at the age of 13. They spent more than 54 years as a couple. He also leaves to mourn his daughters Jean and Michella, and his son Mikail; a daughter-in-law, Kim, and a son-in-law, Carl. He leaves behind five grandchildren; Kevin, Malik, Londyn, Mikayla, and Khloe, and one great grandchild, Nahzir. Michael was preceded in death by his oldest sister Vivian, and twin brothers who died as infants, but he leaves to mourn four sibling; Darlene (Lisa), Joseph "Joe", Todd, and Antonio "Tony". He leaves to mourn four brother-in-laws, and four sister-in-laws; Jimmy, Antonio, Luther (Kenny), Zachary, Veronica, Ann, Mia, and Yvonne. His sister-in-law Jane, preceded him in death as well.

Michael was a true patriarch to his family and he made it his business to know, and to spend time with his many nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, and cousins. He was a man of many talents, but his love and dedication to his family was his greatest gift. We will miss him dealy!!

“ *With sincere sympathy, we regret the lost of your loved one, Michael. Unfortunately, we are unable to attend the service but we wanted you to know that our hearts grieve with yours at this time. As a family member, we will keep in our memory and in our hearts, the wonderful times we spent together with Toddy, Joe and Tony at the family reunions and all those other times in between. We love you all and God loves you, too.
May God continue to Bless you all.
