“ The death of a loved one is such a devastating event that a family goes through. You have my deepest condolences. In the book of Job it tells us of the devastating losses Job went through. He lost all ten of his children in a windstorm. Yet Job put his full trust in Jehovah to help him to deal with such a tragic loss. Job knew something that he had been taught. He knew that someday God would resurrect the dead and he would be with his children again. At Job 14:14 he asked a question that all people the world over desires to know the answer to. He asked: If an able-bodied man dies, can he live again? He then answered the question himself by saying: You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning. Yes Job knew that God yearned to see his servants alive again. So we too, have the wonderful hope of seeing our loved ones come to life. May these wonderful promises from the God of truth help you to cope with your loss.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
