

Michael Ray Brown

August 29, 1956 - May 2, 2009

Michael Ray Brown, the son of the late Dorothy June Brown and Willie Ray Brown was born on August 29, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland where he lived his entire life until his sudden departure from this earthly world on May 2, 2009. Michael attended Baltimore City Schools. In 1975 he graduated from Mergenthaler Vocational Technical High School where he majored in the field of brick masonry, pursuing a career as a construction worker. Michael's most cherished aspect of his life was his "family", demonstrated through his actions of being a good father, brother, nephew, cousin and friend. He was an individual with a kind nature and a giving heart where people from all works of life gravitated towards him seeking his wisdom, his friendship and most times just his spirit. Many will truly miss Michael. Michael leaves to be cherished his memory; beloved and lifelong friend, Cleopatra Forrest; six children, Kiauina Teara Brown, Michael Ray Brown, Jr., Patrick Eli Brown, Willie Anthony Forrest, Ronald Forrest and Rhonda Forrest; two sisters; Deborah Brown and Patricia England, four brothers, Samuel Hancock, Larry Brown, Anthony Brown and Johnnie Ray Moore, eight grandchildren, JaKaiya Johnson, Kaylah Kimble-el, Aniya Brown, Noah Forrest, Destiny, Justine, Dominique Devin and Anthony Forrest, and a host of aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, cousins, friends and acquaintances.

“ Hey Dad.....I'm sorry for being late to talk to you it's just that.... Alot have been going on since I last seen and talk to you smh.. Nothing is the same as it was once you was here. IMY and Nugget so much that it's hard for me to even stay focus.. As for Nugget he misses you even more than me smh but at least he still remain the same lol. As me I'm too far gone I think I broke every promise I made to you that day smh.. Life is still beautiful I jus keep falling into depression but I keep my head up so Noone can tell... Learned that from you... I love you Dad miss you more than I can ever say ill start coming to visit you once or twice a month to talk and let you know I'm ok... That's one promise I'll keep.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out (John5:28-29) by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ To the Family: "May God Grant You The Serenity To Accept the Things That You Cannot Change" I know things dont seem explainable right now but just know that he is in a better place and that his light and his memory still is shining down upon you. Cherish the good times and the memories that you have of him and allow God to handle the rest.##imported-begin##Crystal Brooks##imported-end##
