

Michael B. Richardson

March 29, 1969 - April 18, 2017

Michael Bernard Richardson, son of the late Willie M. Richardson and Tessie Laurine Richardson, was born March 29, 1969 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on April 18, 2017 in Baltimore, Maryland.

He graduated from Cardinal Gibbons School (Roman Catholic High School) in Baltimore, Maryland. He attended Morgan State University for a brief time. He was employed with the following super markets during his earlier years of working: Browns, Safeway and Giant Food. In later years, Michael was employed by Maryland Transit Administration (MTA) until his untimely death.

Michael LOVED sports and was a die-hard Cowboys Fan-“Cowboys for Life”. Michael gained attention everywhere he went because of his “HUMORO US” personality. He always kept people laughing and having a good time. He loved to smile. He was known for his LL Cool J looks- hat and sunglasses. He was always a “true friend” and a devoted family member. He loved attending his family reunions and would enjoy the road trips to whatever city or state it was being held. He loved spending the holidays with family members and friends.

Michael leaves to mourn and cherish his memory: Mable M. Musgrove (Haywood), Leona H. Bullock (Ponce), Helen Merriweath (Gerald), Barbara Bennett (Charles), Loretta Murphy (Charles), Otto Richardson (Dorothy), Jerry Richardson (Marva), Roosevelt Richardson (Bertha), James Richardson (Nathelia), Robert Richardson, Ernest Richardson, Alphonzer Richardson (Darlene), and George Richardson (Lanae); a host of cousins, relatives and friends.

“ my deepest sympathy to Michael's family. I know I'm late as I just found out yesterday that he was gone. I met him a few years ago when he worked at MTA. We would walk to the light rail together. He was such a sweet person and very funny. We had many long talks about his life, what he wanted and the things that were on his mind (good or bad). Although we never dated, we exchanged phone numbers and had many conversations, lunches and would always run into each other at social gatherings. When I didn't see him at a function yesterday, I inquired of him from one of his partners (as he called him). He informed me that he passed months ago. I felt really bad because I had not been to west side in many months so I had no idea. He kept me amused as we both went to The Identity Lounge on Saturdays. I'm going to miss his hugs, kisses on the cheek and his laughter. Rest in peace Michael. You don't have to miss your mom and dad anymore, because now you are resting with them.

I was also looking for someone else and stumbled upon this. I met Mike 30 years ago, and we would oftentimes converse on life's issues. I can't believe this one.

Mike was a great friend every time we met, he was always friendly to my daughter Rachel, who lived next door, Mike was like an uncle, him and his family always showed me respect and me to them, when my daughter told me, I just collapsed, then when I recovered, I could not sleep for the last 2 days, " GONE TO SOON, now he is sitting at the table with Ms. Lorraine, whom he really missed, we love you and miss you Mike, we will see each other again. R.I.P. Ike and Rachel.
