

Michael T. Williams

July 1, 1959 - September 24, 2006

Michael Terry Williams, beloved son of Stonewall & Mildred Williams, labor to reward. Michael received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools: graduating from Fairmount Hill Senior High School. Michael received Jesus Christ as his personal savior at a early age. Then became a devoted member of First Mount Olive Freewill Baptist Church. Throughout his life, Michael had various forms of employment, but the one he most enjoyed was with the Baltimore City Public School System where he worked for many years. Michael was a fun-loving, compassionate and truly geniune person: always telling jokes to everyone he met. Michael was a man with the "Gift of Gab," good or bad, he would say what he wanted when he wanted, but always in good faith. Michael was a determined individual. He enjoyed spending time with his family and close friends, but his first love was the church. Every morning he would turn on Fred Hammond or John P. Kee to start his day. Michael loved family and always found a reason for us to get together. His goal was to teach the value of family and how important it is for us to love one another. Michael leaves to cherish his fond and everlasting memories: his loving parents, Stonewall and Mildred; grandmother, Charlie; son, Michael "Mike Jr.:" daughter-in-law, Nicole: two granddaughters, Destiney and LaNiya: three sisters, Linda, Jeanette, and Brenda: three brothers, Danny, Bryant, and Eric; two sister-in-laws, Trina and Lyclia: brother-in-law, Jerome: ten aunts, nine uncles, and a host of other relatives and dear friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. The sorrow we feel when we lose someone we love can seem to go on forever. It may seem like there is no source of relief. Be assured that there is one that will provide us with relief, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort". We only have to ask. He promises us that there will soon be an end to death, (Rev 21:3,4) and a resurrection for those who have fallen asleep in death (John 5:28,29). These promises were made by the "God who cannot lie." Titus 1:2. I would love to discuss these and other wonderful provisions with you. Please contact me if you are interested.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences goes out to your family. May you draw comfort from the hope of the resurrection by Jesus. He demonstrated this with Lazarus at John 11:38-44. This shows us how much Almighty God really cares about us. May this scripture prove to be a source of comfort to you now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##
