“ We offer our heart felt condolence to the family at this time of bereavement. We've all been where you are. Death is never easy to except, but remember God holds the power. Any feeling of confusion and disbelief will disappear in a moment of pray. Please continue to hold on to those precious memories and know that life is never promised to any of us. Micheal is now free no more worrying or pain will ever endure his body again, he no longer has to deal with the complexity of this world. He truley accomplished the things in life he set to accomplish. He let go and Trusted God. May you all seek God's presence and continue to look for his guidance and support. God Bless You All##imported-begin##Karen Connor##imported-end##

“ My heartfelt condolences to the Terrell family. I feel very blessed to have known Michael. Throughout our lives there are many people that have an influence in the person we become. I have always included Michael as one of the people that was a positive influence in my life. As a 2nd year student pledging Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity in 1982 at UMBC, I was fortunate to get to know Michael who was the Dean of our pledge line. Michael's strong spiritual connection to God was something readily apparent when we first met. His dedication to work, family, friends and others in need was a living example of what a true servant of God is. I feel blessed to have known Michael and I pray that God will comfort those that were fortunate enough to have crossed paths with him.##imported-begin##Rafi Ahmad##imported-end##

“ tO the family of Mr. Terrell, I offer my deepest condolences. I knew Mike. I can't recall where, but I definitely recognize his face. I am so sorry for your loss. We can find comfort in the hope of the ressurection at such times, because it is a promise from Almighty God. He tells us at John 5:28,29 that all those im the memorial tombs will one day hear his voice and come out. So the enemy death will be permanantly removed, and we will be able to see our loved ones again in paradise conditions. May you be strengtened by his promises.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
