

Michael A. Turnage

August 1, 1971 - July 27, 2022

Michael A. Turnage was born to parents Alexander Carter and Myrtle D. Turnage on August 1, 1971. He began his voyage of life in his hometown of Baltimore, Maryland. Michael was a unique kid who blossomed into an even more special adult who left his unforgettable mark wherever he traveled in life. One of his many dreams on his bucket list would be to retire as a resident of Florida. He did just that.

He departed this life peacefully on July 27, 2022 in Tampa, Florida. His educational career reached its height as a scholar of Lake Clifton High School. Michael dedicated years in his life to Port of Baltimore and furthered his career as a dispatcher for Amazon, as well as a dedicated employee of Clean Venture. Michael shared a special bond with his daughter (Autumn.) He loved his family and found pleasure in anything pertaining to them. He cherished gathering and all things FOOD gaining him the nick name "Fat Mike".

Michael knew God and enjoyed LIFE no matter the circumstances, never allowing illness to hinder his joy Turnage leaves to cherish his memories through his daughter Autumn Turnage, sisters Tondria Thornton and Yolanda Hempfield, his one brother Deandre Carter, nieces Ceaira Wright, Kaiylah Wright, MacKenzie Carter, one great-niece Jordynn Garland, his brother-in-law Kelly Thornton Sr., his mother Myrtle D. Turnage, and a host of aunts, uncles, and cousins. Michael Turnage was preceded in death by his first born daughter Mariah Turnage, youngest brother Eric Green, his father Alexander Carter, grandfather James Willard Carter and both grandmothers Myrtle Turnage and Maggie Carter, whom he cherished and loved dearly
