“ I am extremely sorry for your loss. I can not imagine the pain you have had to endure. May the God of comfort be with you now and in times to come. God's Word the bible promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 28,29 and also at Revelations 21: 3,4

“ Mike (as I called you), this is still unbelievable and sooo unreal. I am deeply saddened by your untimely death. I am still pondering on our last conversation (Sunday morning) on our way back from work. I am stuck on it because we talked broadly about death, dying and our attitude towards it. I had no idea that you were possibly sensing something. I pray that our good lord will grant you eternal rest in his bossom. Journey well my good friend! Adieu Mike!

“ What moves through us is a silence.a quiet sadness,a longing for one more day,one more word,one more touch,we may not understand why Micheal left this earth so soon,or why Micheal left before we were ready to say good-by, but little by little,we begin to remember not just that you pass away,but that you lived and that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.. (R.I.P. Micheal Leon Washington).
May you find strenght in the love of family and in warm embrace of friends.

“ Mike- I am so glad that I had the joy of working with you for these last couple of years. You could make a bad day turn around with your sense of humor, contagious smile and that laugh! You told me not to long ago that at the beginning of my day I should talk to the lord and tell myself that it was going to be a great day. That little piece of advice has gone a long way and has made such a difference in my life. I am glad that you got to be a part of my life even if it was only for such a short time. May you rest in piece! I will never forget you Mike! - Amber Minix

“ I knew Mike since 1986 when I worked at PIR. I was just starting out in psych and he was so helpful. We both then worked other places but ended up at Tucker working on same unit together! He was so fun and always saw positives on our unit! I would give him rides home and it was so nice to have that time with him to destress! I will miss his smile, laughter, and passion for food! May he rest in God's glory and his family be comforted.

“ Michael was an inspiration to us all here at Tuckers. I embraced his smile everyday when I would see him. My heart is so sadden of his passing, but Heaven received another angle as we here on earth had to let him go. I know with out a doubt I will see him again in the Heavens above. May God Bless his family during this time give them peace,understanding , hope and faith.
