

Michael Williams

October 29, 1949 - July 5, 2013

MICHAEL WILLIAMS, beloved son and only child to the late James E. Williams and Josephine (Lyles) Williams, was born on October 29, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland.

He worked as a Longshoreman for the Steamship Trade Association on the docks of Baltimore for over thirty years until he retired.

His formal education was received in the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Frederick Douglass High School, proudly in the Class of 1968. He often bragged about prominent Frederick Douglass Alumni, like Thurgood Marshall (United States Supreme Court Justice), Cab Calloway (Musician/Entertainer), and Raymond Chester (NFL Football Player). Being a member of the Frederick Douglass High School varsity baseball team, varsity football team, and the art club helped to further develop Michael's talents and love for sports and the arts.

Michael, fondly known as "Mike" by his family and friends was known for his smile, humorous, and easy going personality. Mike enjoyed watching and talking about all kinds of TV shows and movies (especially old horror with Lon Chaney Jr. or Bela Lugosi and almost any old western). He was a movie collector and had a library of old VHS tapes and DVDs to prove it. Look out! He would always test family and friends with movie or TV trivia questions. Mike enjoyed listening to Classic Soul and Classic R&B (Motown for sure). He also enjoyed cooking a lot and testing his adjusted recipes on family and friends. He liked to talk about his favorite team, the Ravens; but, most of all, he loved to be home with his wife, his kids, and whomever would stop by to visit. God truly blessed us with Mike.

On July 5, 2013, God called Mike home. He leaves the following to cherish his lasting and loving memory: a loving and dedicated wife, Barbara J. Williams; four sons, Darryll, Paul, Omar and Marcus; one daughter, Tiana; mother-in-law, Eleanor Rollins; eleven grandchildren, one great-grandchild; three daughters-in-law; and a host of other relatives and friends who love him dearly.

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I extend my deepest condolences to the family of Michael Williams. I am deeply saddened to hear of your loss. May you find comfort from the God of all comfort, who helps us cope with our grief. It can be so hard to face each day without our loved one; but, the Bible promises the hope of a resurrection at Revelation 21:4 - "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be any more. The former things have passed away." We look forward to seeing Mr. Williams again here on a paradise earth.(Psalms 37:9,10,11,29)
