“ Big Sis,

I still can't believe that you are not here with us physically but I know that you will forever live in my heart. You were my sister, best friend, protector and much more. The only way that i can have peace in what has happended it that he figured that you had done enough, you were there for everyone....job well done sis and now it's time for you to rest. We have some big shoes to fill and we may stumble and fall but I know that we will eventually get our stride and when I fell as though i'm faced with an obstacle and don't know what to do, I'll just think what would Michele do. See you on the other side, I Love You. Cherry (Lil Sis)

“ Dear Family and Friends,

It is understood that the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable when you lose a loved one. During these times, you can find comfort in God’s Word. The Bible helps us to understand how Jehovah and Jesus feel about death. Jehovah promised that “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.”—Revelation 21:4 Jesus said that “all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out.” (John 5:28, 29) People who are to be restored to life right here on earth will be reunited with their loved ones. The dead will not be raised to life in a world filled with war, crime, and sickness, because God’s purpose is that the whole earth be made into a paradise. They will have an opportunity to live forever on this earth in peaceful and happy conditions. What a loving God and such a wonderful hope for you and your loved one.

Sincerely,

A Bible Student

“ To the Family and Friends of Michele K. Ashe,

I express my deepest condolences to you all at this time. I can surely sympathize with the pain you are going through because like everyone else here on this Earth I have lossed a loved one in death. God's Word describes death a sting becaus it causes us so much pain and grief. Wouldn't it be great if we could just eliminate this enemy today. Well although we can not, it willl be gone in the future. At Revelation 21:4 we read, " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Jehovah sets out this hope before us and it is no doubt very encouraging. What a wonderful thing it will be for death to be a thing of the past. My heart goes out to you at this time and your family is definitely in my prayers.

“ RIP Aunt Michele,

There will never be another you. You have been there for me all throughout my life. Helping when needed, a shoulder to cry on, secret keeper, you were truly the best of us! It will take some time but with God's love and strength, we will all find peace in the end. I never had the chance to tell you just how much you meant to me, I can only hope and pray that you knew! Gone but never forgotten. How lucky we were to have you in our family and how blessed we now are to have you as an angel, watching over us with that beautiful smile! I love you! RIP!
