

Michele Monique Johnson

September 23, 1969 - June 4, 2015

The beautiful and gentle spirit known as Michele Monique Johnson was escorted into God's heavenly home June 4, 2015. She was born in Newport News, Virginia to Thaddeus and Glenice Johnson on September 23, 1969. She has always been called her mom's special birthday present because they share the same birth date. Her uncle Charles Johnson and grandparents predeceased Michele.

Michele was educated in the public schools of Hampton, VA. She attended Thomas Nelson Community College. She later furthered her education and graduated from Strayer University where she received her Master of Business Administration with a concentration in Health Care Management.

At an early age, Michele was baptized and received her spiritual guidance from Zion Baptist Church of Hampton, Virginia. She was a member of the youth choir, ushers ministry, Church School and the Tutorial ministry. After leaving Hampton, Michele joined Trinity Baptist Church. She later chose her place of worship and transferred her membership to St. Peter Baptist Church. In all things and in all ways, she believed all the glory belongs to God.

Michele was employed By JenCare Medical Center in Richmond, Virginia as an Executive Administrative Assistant where she was highly respected by her coworkers.

Michele, a person of character that was a selfless sweetie, caring, considerate and giving true friend. She cared deeply for her family and close friends. One of her special joys was spending time with her two nieces, Layla and Kyndall. She was quite fond of them and had her own special name for them; they were the extension of her heartbeat. She was instilling in them strength, compassion, prayer, a love for all people and most of all, a love for God. Michele's life is a testimony to her personal fortitude and the hand of God upon her life.

She leaves to cherish her memory loving parents, Thaddeus and Glenice Johnson of Hampton, VA; brother, Kevin W. Johnson (Andrea) of Virginia Beach, VA; two nieces, Layla and Kyndall Johnson of Virginia Beach; uncles and aunts who loved her dearly. “ My name is Tia Wise and I met Michelle back on 1990 through a mutual friend. She and I clicked from the first day I met her. Michelle always smiled, even at times when she was sad; assuming in her mind all will be ok. The reason I wanted to say a few words is because, wether she knew it or not, she was a big help and comfort to me and my newborn son, whom she had him more then me. We somehow lost contact and to hear bout this saddens my heart terribly: but I would like to send my heart felt condolences to The Family in your time of grief. Michelle will never be forgotten.. Be blessed 🙏 ?? 🙏 ?? 🙏 ?? 😊😊

“ When I first started at Jencare we were a young, growing company. I had few people I could call on if I needed help at the time. Michele always made time for me, making me feel like I belonged here and doing what she could to help me grow and succeed in this sometimes confusing environment. I'll always appreciate and remember the care and attention she offered to not only myself, but others whom I worked with. She will be missed by many good people.

“ Hi Michele, It was my pleasure to have shared special moments with you and Karen. Your funny faces, smiles and strong opinions were truly appreciated. This poem is for you:

A Symbol of Hope

*A butterfly lights beside us like a sunbeam
And for a brief moment its glory and beauty belong to our world
But then it flies again
And though we wish it could have stayed...
We feel lucky to have seen it.*

Unknown

To the Johnson Family, relatives and friends may you find comfort in her memories and the love she shared.

Rest in Peace Michele, you got your Butterfly wings and your earthly life leaves hope for others.

“ What a remember most is how Michele always carried herself as a "Lady". Easy going, and quiet. What made Michele so important to me, was her willingness to share her beautiful, thoughtful and caring family. You'll be surprised how little things mean so much. You will truly be missed and forever loved. God bless, Denise Phillips

“ GLENICE TOM KEVIN my heart is sick I cant imagine you ever much thought of a life one without the other but clearly we all will face this and we don't know when and wedont know how it will happen. I truly was surprised at this event happening so soon Michele was so vibrant and happy go lucky so to speak. We all will solely miss her with her jokes so much like her grandma Marilee. The one thing you can count on she knew God and anything that may have kept her in limbo wont bother her ever again for she is so free now. We can rejoice for Michele and our father who is too wise to make a mistake he is gathering his flowers. When we remember Michele we will smile for she had a crack for you.

“ Michele and I attended a conference in Birmingham, Alabama years ago we had a great time laughing, talking and shopping. I had the biggest laugh because she would not sleep under the covers and didn't want the covers to touch her so she would wrap up in her blanket she bought from home. I will miss you my friend.

We shared so many memories and just spoke about a few recently. What I will miss the most is knowing that she and I are acting a fool when the award shows have the old school hip-hop entertainers. She knew me well and I knew her well . Rest in peace my dear friend and I will see you again.
