

Michele Denise Livingston

April 22, 1968 - May 9, 2011

MICHELLE DENISE LIVINGSTON, was born on April 22, 1968 in Baltimore, Maryland. She peacefully departed this life on Monday, May 9, 2011 to be with her Heavenly father.

Michelle received her secondary education in North Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. She graduated from North Myrtle Beach High School in 1986. She then matriculated at the University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC), graduating cum laude. After obtaining her Bachelor of Science degree from UMBC, she accepted an outstanding scholar assignment with the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), formerly known as Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA). After eighteen years of federal service, she attained the position of Health Insurance Specialist.

Michelle was raised in a Christian home, and accepted Christ as her Personal Savior at an early age. Michelle has been a faithful member of Bethel A.M.E. under the fine pastoral leadership of Rev. Frank M. Reid III. Michelle loved God with all her heart.

Simply being in her presence without a word being spoken, one would adjust their attitudes. She loved her family and diligently taught them God's Holy Word. She did not need to know you nor agree with you, in order to bless you. She gave without expectations of receiving anything more than love in return.

In her spare time, Michelle loved to travel, read, and fellowship with friends and family. She especially enjoyed spending precious time with her grandchildren, Madison , who affectionately referred to her as “Princess.” She had a special passion for writing poetry. Her poems and essays captured so much of God’s grace, power, and love in nature and daily situations. Her commitment to holiness exuded a spirit of servitude and overflowing kindness to all. A teacher. Prayer warrior, and servant, Michelle was always available to listen, laugh, lead, learn, and love.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Lizzie Mae Alfred. Michelle leaves to rejoice in her homegoing: two loving children, Itesha and Theron Jr.; one granddaughter, Madison (Moo); one brother, David; and a host of uncle, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
