“ I am at unbelief that as I am in search of another obituary. I am led to one, of a former high school classmate.

May the Lord guide and May the Lord comfort you during this difficult time. It has been such a long time since seeing Michele. We attended Mervo and graduated in the same class. Knowing; to be absent in the body is being present with the LORD. We will have a glorious opportunity to Be with our God and to remain with our loved one's throughout eternity. Hope is knowing Jesus has gone to prepare a better place for us. There, Michele lives. Sonia Parham-Scott

“ To Aunt Hilda, David, Mary, Anthony and Carol.

I know it hasn't been easy. But you've done a pretty good job of hanging in there and taking things day by day. And I want you to remember... Things are going to get better soon. I want to give you every bit of encouragement I possibly can. That beyond the clouds that sometimes get in our way, the sun is shining just for you... and everything is going to be okay.

I just thank God for the times he allow us to spend with Michele. And the memories that I will never forget. Michele Laughter was so Contagious. But I have hope that one day we will meet again.

First Friend, First Cousin Vivian.
