

Michell Marie Anderson

April 22, 1971 - February 17, 2019

Michell Marie Anderson, affectionately known as “Peaches” was born to Myrtis Marie Carter, and the late Clemmie O. Anderson, II, on April 22, 1971 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Peaches received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System.

Peaches was loved by many, kept you laughing, upbeat, but would be sure to tell you how it is. This beautiful person and spirit was a well rounded woman who lived a life that was filled with twists and turns. Though, through it all, she remained determined to persevere as she remained determined to win.

She deeply loved her daughters, younger brother, Clemmie a.k.a. “Pete” for his accomplishments, love and undying support of her, and last but never least, Junior, the absolute love of her life whom she remained dedicated to and later married.

She leaves to cherish her beautiful memory: her husband, James “Junior” Boyd; mother, Myrtis Marie Carter; daughters, Keynica Marie and Keynisha Marie Robinson; brother, Clemmie O. Anderson, III; sisters-in-law, Regina Anderson and Chlorice Hilliard; nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, as well as a host of cousins, and other relatives, and friends.
