

Michelle M. Brown

May 10, 1961 - January 29, 2018

Michelle Monica Brown, daughter of the late Miriam (Wingate) Brown and George Peterson, was born on May 10, 1961 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the youngest of three children, two sisters Evelyn, Julia Margaret and one brother Roosevelt Brown. The Lord entered Johns Hopkins Hospital and called Michelle home to eternal rest on January 29, 2018.

Michelle received her education at Paul Laurence Dunbar in Baltimore, Maryland. She continued her education in the nursing field at Baltimore City Community College, which she then transferred her education to Coppin State University. In her 20's Michelle worked at the Mayor's Office while she interned at Johns Hopkins Hospital for her nursing career. In the summer of 1975 Michelle found her first love with Oscar (Jackie) Lundy and from this union she had La Tonya S. Brown and their love lasted for over 15 years. In the year of 1995 Michelle found love again with Erskin (Ricky) Brown and they remained a couple until the year of 2012.

Michelle devoted her time and compassion to the care of her mother until her death. Michelle then put all her time and energy into her grandchildren with whom she loved pass her own existence. She would always say "I LUVVV MY GRAND KIDS", and meant every word of it. Michelle was loved by numerous friends she made throughout her life and was well known for her sharp tongue, attitude and caring heart. Anyone that knew Michelle knew she would lay you out in one minute and the next fix you a full course meal. Her famous potato salad, sweet potato pie, diabetic Kool-Aid, Sunday and holiday dinners will truly be missed.

Michelle leaves to cherish her memory: a loving daughter, LaTonya Brown; two sisters, Evelyn Edmond and Julia Margaret; one brother, Roosevelt Brown; her favorite uncle, Sylvester Witherspoon; five grandchildren, MarQuis Brown, Talia, Bria, Christian, Camren England; the two loves of her life, Oscar Lundy and Erskin Brown; nieces, nephews and a host of family and friends.
