

Michelle Yvonne Preston

September 8, 1948 - January 24, 2011

MICHELLE YVONE PRESTON, third of six children was born on September 8, 1948 to Ella Preston and the late Charles Preston. She suddenly passed away on January 24, 2011.

Michelle attended Baltimore Community College, Sojourner Douglass and the Carolina Center, where she received diplomas. Michelle became successful in accounting. She went on to work for the Baltimore Car and Rental as an Accountant. Michelle was always active in the community, attending Women Empowerment Events and sharing information that was for the betterment of other.

Most of her joy came from being a loving caring mother and grandmother. Encouraging her granddaughter Kiara Preston to become anointed evangelist at the New Psalmist Baptist Church where Michelle was a member for approximately twenty years. She devoted her life in caring for her brother Carl Preston and her ailing mother Ella Preston making sure she kept their doctors appointments.

Michelle loved to write poems and email inspiring literature to friends and family, and tried very hard not to miss a Tyler Perry play or movie. Another one of her favorite pastimes was shopping, she was known very well by the vendors and the Family Dollar Store on Edmondson Avenue. She also loved to cook and she was good at it. There were many gathering around her mother table bringing family together for a delicious meal. Her nieces and nephews loved her potato salad, spare ribs and mac and cheese. After dinner she enjoyed playing Pinochle. Michelle was a wonderful heart felt outgoing person that loved helping others. She always had encouraging words using scripture to back her up. One of her favorite saying was, "God knows what to do when to do and how to do" when she was not healing with words of encouragement she was mixing herbal remedies.

Her heart's desire was to open her own home call the Healing Place. Michelle leaves to cherish her memory: her two children, Nathaniel and Cheryl Preston; her grandchildren, Kiara and Wayne; great-grandson, Ka'vontae; mother, Ella Preston; sister, Marion and Mary Catherine; brothers, Carl and Arland; and a host of nephews, nieces and friends.
