

Migdalia Rodriguez

June 5, 1964 - March 11, 2009

Migdalia "Dally" Rodriguez, born June 5, 1964, at Wyckoff Medical Center in Brooklyn, New York to Rosa Vargas and Angelo Rodriguez departed this life after a lengthy illness on March 11, 2009, at the Joseph Richey Hospice in Baltimore, Maryland. "Dally" as she was lovingly known to her family and friends was educated in the Brooklyn, New York School system. "Dally" traveled from Puerto Rico to New York with the love of her life "Tato" (Jose Silva). Through this union, Migdalia gave birth to her oldest son, Joseph Silva and the three moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where she gave birth to two more beautiful children, Josbeth and Taicha Silva. "Dally" faced many challenges in this life and overcame many of them with the love and patience of her children, her family and her friends. "Dally" loved to cook, dance, listen to music and spend time with her children, grandchildren, and friends. The legacy of Dally's love will be remembered in the hearts of her mother, Rosa Vargas; father, Angelo Rodriguez; three children, Joseph, Josbeth and Taicha Silva; five grandchildren, Anesa, Shian, Dahlia, Joseph, Jr., and Dewin; six sisters, Rosa Maria, Maribel, Carmenlidia, Jo 'Anne, Marisol, and Lilliana Arroyo; three brother, Angel, Alejandro, and Edgardo Arroyo; four aunts, "Pura" Lopev, Carmen, Erma and Iris Vargas; one uncle, Annstazio Ortez; Sharon Miller, Shawnya Peace, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and dear friends. Special mention to Ruby Lee Reed, Melissa Sanchez, Mary Wright and Brenda Cofield.
