

Mikal James Mayo

February 24, 1993 - December 1, 2020

Mikal James Mayo, son of Orlando James Mayo and Deanna Lynn Thomas, was born on February 24, 1993 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a life well lived, he departed this life on Tuesday, December 1, 2020.

Mikey, as he was affectionately known, was a kind, quiet, and intellectually curious child. Mikey was a gifted student-he didn't receive his first grade below an "A" until middle school. Mikey was also a voracious reader who would devour books and tested on a 7th grade reading level when he was in the third grade. Mikey wasn't just a bookworm- he was a talented athlete who excelled in football, track, and lacrosse. After graduating from Dunbar High School, Mikey matriculated to West Virginia University.

Mikey was a determined young man; tenacious in his thoughts and actions. Although quiet, his spirit and energy radiated to all who were blessed with his presence. Mikey's smile and humor would light up a room and he found great joy in seeing others smile and be happy. Mikey would oftentimes say "I'm going to change the world...just watch and see."

Mikey was a kind soul who loved his family-he adored and was protective of his siblings. While always loving towards his family, Mikey discovered an even deeper love on October 2, 2018-the day that his son, Noah Mayo, was born. Mikal was overjoyed by Noah and despite being hundreds of miles apart, Mikey would video chat with him daily. Both Mikey and Noah would light up when they were together. While departed from this life too soon, Mikey's love and legacy continues through Noah.

Mikey was preceded in death by his grandfather, Lawrence J. Mayo. In addition to his parents, Mikey leaves to mourn four brothers, Orlando J. Mayo Jr., Alonzo J. T. Mayo, Christopher M. Thomas, and Deion N. Richardson; one sister, Brianna . Walker, one Grandfather, Larry D. Thomas, Sr.; two grandmothers, Lynette Thomas and Margaret Ann Lewis; one uncle, Larry D. Thomas, Jr.; four aunts, Katrina Egbrimolen, Vanessa Terry, Madonna Huggins, and Sharon Smith, and a host of cousins, friends and other loved ones.

“ My deepest sympathies go out to your family and close friends. Mikal and I went to school together and it hurt my heart to hear he passed. He was such a bright man and had so much going for him. Taken too soon. I will be continuing to pray for yall.
