November 25, 1958 - January 9, 2019

MIKELE LEVI BELL was born on November 25th ,1958 in Baltimore, Maryland, to the late Oliver Levi Slaughter and the late Clydine Dean Bell, who preceded him in death. Mikele suddenly departed this life on Wednesday January 9,2019 after a fatal accident claimed his life.

His keenness to serve his country Mikele joined the United States Army in 1979 where he gained the use of Military Intelligence.

Mikele was talented with his hands which later left him writing, playing and teaching music to most of his siblings as well as his devotion to local Baltimore band called "Habbit"

He was a very private man who kept to himself, his biggest dilemma was fighting with himself to do what was right by those that loved him the most; however any and every one who knew him would not have a doubt that he loved beyond this world and concur that he took that love with him.
