“ To The Woodlon Family,

May you take comfort in knowing that your love one is in a better place...

The Community Neighborhood of Mt. Winans and its residents join you in your sorrow. Woody was a likeable fellow. He was generous in allowing me to interview him at his home on Huron Street, regarding his insights about the "Old" Mount Winans, before his passing, I will forever be grateful!

“ To the Woodlon Family, you have my sincere sympathy in the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible describes death as a "sting" because of the pain it causes to loved ones. May you draw close to Jehovah God during this difficult time and may you find comfort from friends and family.

“ I am extremely sorry for your loss. I can not imagine the pain you have had to endure. May the God of comfort be with you now and in times to come. God's Word the bible promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 28,29 and also at Revelations 21: 3,4

“ The passing of my cousin Junior is an odd harbinger for me. Milburn F. Woodlon Jr., was the first born grandson of James Winfield Woodlon and Carrie Height Woodlon. His father Milburn "Bubba" Woodlon was my mother's oldest brother. And though he was more than 20 years older than me, I am reminded that I am of the same generation as he and also that we've shared a proud family history steeped in Christian principles and love for one another. I guess most knew him as "Woody", as he is well known in the beloved South Baltimore neighborhood of his birth. However, at this juncture of his passing, I am feeling particularly melancholy remembering all the Woodlons who have now gone on to be with GOD. And I know you are with our beloved Papa, your parents and all of our aunts and uncles and cousins who surely welcomed your arrival. Imagining heaven is indeed a place where family is reunited and love never dies, I know you are happy cuz and probably dancing with my Mom, your Aunt Eula, waltzing around heaven. I always loved to see you dance with Mommy. I will miss your early morning call every Mother's Day. And the South Baltimore picnic in Carroll Park will never be same. I am so glad that Stromie and I had a chance to say goodbye. To Sissy, Chucky, Wayne, Keith and Nikki. My condolences and much love. May you find peace in God's sacred promise.
