

Mildred Aleuse Andoleo

May 2, 1920 - March 24, 2004

Mildred A. Andoleo, daughter of the late Alfred and Elizabeth Cromartie, was born May 2, 1920 in Wilmington, North Carolina and she departed this life on March 24, 2004 in Baltimore, Maryland. Following the death of her parents, Mildred moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1938. Soon thereafter she met Ernest Adolphus Andoleo, Sr. and they began the family that consists of three sons; Ernest, Jr., Jerome, Rodney, and the late Patricia Andoleo. During her many years in Baltimore, Mildred was employed by Dutches Linen, Chemical Service and the Eating Together Program from which she retired. Mildred leaves to mourn her three sons; one daughter-in-law, Roslyn Andoleo; two sisters, Eloise Brown and Sarah Fennell; two brothers, Horace and Russell Cromartie. In addition she will be missed by her five grandchildren, Ernest III, Arnita Roberts, Adrienne J. Mayo, Alex Jackson, and Monique White; eight great-grandchildren. Mildred also preceded in passing a host of other relatives and friends whom she will one day meet and greet again. In addition to her numerous relatives and friends, Mildred has blessed all who knew and loved her with a bounty of priceless and precious memories to pass along. Mildred's belief in family and friends allowed her to share her wisdom and love in many ways that she herself might have never been aware. To the generation before her Mildred was a sign of hope; to the generation in which she was a part, Mildred was a sign of strength, and to the generations to follow she was a sign of wisdom. In life, Mildred was the touchstone on which many found love, shelter and peace. In death, Mildred will serve as the driving spirit from which her loved ones will gain strength of character, hope and love.

“ My condolences to the family and friends. During this difficult time, the Bible can be very comforting. John 5:28 promises, "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Continue to draw strength from the scriptures and each other.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##

“ My husband and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your loss. The Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This give us assurance that Jesus cares for you during this time of your grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29)##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I am very sorry to hear about your loss but please be assured that Almighty God looks down and sees your plight. He promises you that in the very near future he is going to swallow up death forever and raise the dead to life again and we will all live in a paradise earth free from all the problems of this old dying system. Please read Isaiah 25:8,9; John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4 to find these promises of or God and Father.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
