

Mildred Brooks

December 16, 1926 - October 30, 2002

Mildred G. Brooks, daughter of the late Louise Gantt and Charles Bennett, was born December 16, 1926 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on October 30, 2002, after a brief illness. She received her education in the Baltimore Public schools and graduated from Carver High School, when it was located at Lafayette Avenue and Carey Street. While there, she studied cosmetology and met the late Walter Pernal Brooks, who was studying to be a cook. They married shortly after graduating from Carver and out of this union, Walter Glasco Brooks and Phyllis Elaine Brooks were born. Mildred was a devoted mother and housewife who later worked as a housekeeper and then retired. As her children became adults, she was always mom, in addition to being their friend and a friend to those who knew her or knew of her. She loved her family and they enjoyed being with her. She was a fun loving person and would raise their spirits when times were rough and often times spoke quite frankly, and we loved her for that. She leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Walter G. Brooks, Sr., daughter, Phyllis E. Nolley, daughter-in-law, Oscelyn A. Brooks and nine grandchildren, Debbie L. Mack, Arnold J. Long, Michelle N. Tolson, Danna R. Brooks, Keshia D. Marshall, Walter G. Brooks Jr., Pernell B. Brooks, Calvin D. Anderson-Vines, Danielle N. Brooks, and seven great-grandchildren, Jerrod Tolson, Tavon Tolson, Ashley Smith, Keshera M. Marshall, Tiffany J. Mack, Shannon Foster, Noel Foster, Walter G. Brooks III, and D'Shaun P. Brooks, two very special nephews, Quinnie C. Matthews and Raymond Contee, very special nieces, Beverly H. Clark, Barbara Mc Neil, and Paula Cain, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ Aunt Mildred, You became our earthly mother, when our mother was called to heaven. We are better women because you have been a part of our lives. I will always remember your humor, your laughter and your courage. We know that you have now taken your place with the other guardian angels looking out for us from above.##imported-begin##Paula Cain##imported-end##
