“ Shirley and Family, We feel your loss. Our prayers go out to the family. Remember all the good times you all shared together. I would always call her miss 16. Aunt Mildred was one of a kind and she will be missed. She is with her Sisters now. What a time they are having. Love always, Gloria & Robert##imported-begin##Gloria & Robert Fortune##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy to your family. I too know the pain of losing someone you love to death, and felt that the words of Christ Jesus himself would give you as much comfort as it has me, for at John chapter 5, verses 28,29 he promises that all those in the memorial tombs will, "hear his voice and come out." I believe him and I am sure that you do too! Again please accept not just my sympathy, but my empathy as well, for I can take your pain and put it in my heart.##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I am sending condolences to your recent loss of Ms. Mildred at 90. Living to a wonderful age is in fulfillment of Ps.90 :10," Some person living to be 70 years and others because of special mightiness 80 years". It will be great when there will be a paradise earth filled with happy people being perfect and doing as Ps.145:16 say. Imagine the happiness when the dead are resurrected , JOYFUL,Marvelous. May all the cherished and precious times shared with Ms.Mildred help in the journey of life ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of the death of your family member Mildred. This must have been a very difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort your family. Psalms 116:15 reads...Precious in the eyes of Jehovah is death of his loyal ones. Ecclesiastes 7:1 reads...A name is better than good oil, and the day of death than the day of one being born. Isaiah 25:8 reads...He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And reproach of his people will take away from all the earth, For Jehovah has spoken it.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to Ms. Young's family and friends. The loss of a dearly loved one can be painful and difficult to bear. That's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, God promises to do away with that "enemy" and all the pain it causes at 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Then "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up."-Daniel 12:2. May your study of God's Word, the Bible, comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the Young family I send my warm condolences. Mrs Mildred certainly lived a long time as people view longevity today, but in earlier times they lived so much longer. It was not uncommon for people to live 800 or 900 years. Methusaleh, the oldest living man, lived to be 969 years old. Only in later times did the bible mention that people would live only 70 or 80 years, because of some special mightiness, according to Psalm 90:10. Why did people live longer back there than we do today? It was always God"s purpose for people to live forever according to the divine will of God, but because of the rebellion of Adam and Eve, they lost out on that purpose for all mankind. Romans 5:12 explains this. It says, "That is why through one man sin entered into the world and death through sin; thus death spread to all men, because they had all sinned." This is why we live short lives which end up in death today. Yet the bible says that God"s purpose has not changed, and one day not only will be living for 900 years, but obedient and faithful people will be living forever. Job 14:1,2 says this about our lives today; "Man born of woman is short-lived and glutted with agitation." "Like a blossom he has come forth and is cut off, and he runs away like the shadow and does not keep existing." In the new paradise Jehovah is creating we won"t be cut off in death, but will keep living forever in true peace and security, and all those who have already died will be ressurected to share in those blessings with us. Yes the bible says at Isaiah 25:8 that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." May these bible verses give you much comfort, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Sorry for your loss. It's very difficult when you lose a love one. 1st Corinthians 1: 1-3 tells us about Jehovah "the father of tender mercies and the God who comfort us through all our tribulations". Please except these words as some comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Phyllis Duvall##imported-end##
