

Mildred A. Davis

December 26, 1932 - October 21, 2019

Mildred Ann Davis (Stith) was born on December 26, 1932 in Petersburg, Virginia. She was the youngest of four children born to Willie and Hattie Stith. She departed this life on Monday, October 21, 2019.

She moved to Baltimore in 1940. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools and was a graduate of Paul Laurence Dunbar High School.

She met and later married Henry Ford Davis, Sr. on June 28, 1952. He preceded her in death in 2009. They were happily married for 57 years. From this union they had six children. As a homemaker, she dedicated her life to her family and was proud of her children. She was the “Queen” of her family. All she had to do was mention something she liked, and she had it. She had a quiet spirit but could be feisty at times. She was truly loved by all.

She was a member of Wayland Baptist Church under Rev. W. Payne and later became a member of The City Temple of Baltimore (Baptist). She was a faithful and dedicated member. She loved City Temple, Reverend Yeargin and her church family. She was on numerous ministries including the Senior Ushers, Young at Heart, Wisdom Dance and Outreach. She also participated in the Women’s Choir.

She leaves her legacy to cherish her memory: five children - Beverly, Sharon,

Kenneth, Kevin and Stacey; also a son (Henry Davis, Jr.) who preceded her in death; eleven grandchildren; thirteen great grandchildren; two great-great grandchildren; two daughters-in-law; one son-in-law, and a host of relatives and friends.

“ *To the Davis Family,
I have lost a Mom too, because that is who she was to the kids on Loyola Southway.
My heart is heavy for you and I love the family very much.
I would like to tell you a quote from Vice President Biden as he spoke at a funeral. He said "You will know everything is alright when a smile comes to your lips before a tear comes to your eyes".*
