

Mildred D. Gray

May 5, 1918 - May 11, 2014

MILDRED D. GRAY was the beloved daughter of the late Florence Gray, born on May 5, 1918 in Baltimore, Maryland. God let an angel out on loan to the world. She was taught family values, love for all, scriptures, and how to pray — qualities that shaped her very essence for the rest of her life. She departed this life on May 11, 2014. Mildred received her education at Douglass High School in Baltimore, Maryland. She was employed by the Maryland State Employment Office until her retirement. She accepted God as her personal Savior in 1934 at St. James' Episcopal Church, Baltimore, Maryland where she remained a loyal servant until her sunset. Mildred was an extraordinary mother and friend to all who had nothing but love in her heart for God, her family, and all mankind! She loved visiting the Cherry Hill Senior Center. She will truly be missed by all who ever crossed her path. She let her light shine and left it here for the world. She was greatly loved by all who knew her. She was affectionately known as "Little Shorty". Mildred had one sister, Edmonia Bates, who preceded her in death. Mildred leaves behind a loving family to cherish her memory and continue her legacy. She was blessed with four children (two sons, who preceded her in death, Franchot Gray and Homer Gray), and leaves: one son, Ian Gray; one daughter, Althea Hill; six grandchildren, Ian Jr., Kim, Antonio Sr., Quintin, Ira Jr. and Tameka; five great-grandchildren, Brandon, Chantelle, Antonio Jr., Ira III and Malai; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The Gray Family. May your find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He assures us that our loved ones have a hope of a resurrection back to a beautifully restored paradise earth. He even promises us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
