

Mildred A. Jackson

February 11, 1924 - May 20, 2012

MILDRED AGNES COATS JACKSON, was born on February 11, 1924 to James and Julia Coates, who preceded her in death. On May 20, 2012 Mildred was called home after a lengthy illness.

Mildred was the ninth of ten children, which included three brothers, Zack, John and Joseph and six sisters, Rebecca, Adele, Cleadia, Elizabeth, Julia and Cecelia.

She started her education in Baltimore County and continued in the Baltimore City Public School System.

In July 1942, Mildred married Philip Jackson and from that union, Phyllis Mildred was born. After their daughter entered school, Mildred became employed at Maryland Glass Corporation as a packer. She retired from this position.

Mildred was an active member of St. Edward Roman Catholic Church's Ladies Sodality and SEALS until her illness prevented her from participating. She enjoyed interacting with her family, church members, neighbors and friends. She was affectionately called "Grandma Mil" or "Aunt Mil" by many.

Mildred is survived by: daughter, Phyllis; two grandchildren, Brian and Jason; six great-grandchildren, Terra, Rosalyn, Jasmine, Christopher, Jessica and Ryan; two great-great-grandchildren, McKenzie and Kemeelah; two granddaughters-in-law, Kellye and Donna; her brother, Joseph; sisters-in-law, Alverta Coates, Gaither Coates, Ora Jackson and Ruth Jackson; and a multitude of nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ I wish to express my condolences to the family. I know that your loss is great. May you find comfort from the God of all comfort who can help you to cope with the loss of your loved one. It can be so hard to face each day without your loved one, but the love and support of family and friends and, of course, our loving Creator, can help to ease the pain and sorrow. Again, please accept my sincere condolences.
