

Mildred Jones

May 7, 1923 - October 2, 2010

MILDRED JONES, daughter of the late George and Emma Jones, was born on May 7, 1923 in Baltimore, Maryland. She went home to be with the Lord on October 2, 2010.

She received her education through the Baltimore City Public School. She worked as a housekeeper for the Schapiro family for over forty years. She valued her work and the opportunity it provided to teach and care for others.

Mildred had two sisters, Isabelle and Irene, both pre-deceased. She raised her two sons, Ernest Jones- who preceded her in death, and Edgar Jones. In addition to her own family, she assisted in raising to Schapiro from different racial and ethnic backgrounds. She was a great mother, teacher and friend.

Mildred enjoyed shopping, and looking forward to visiting Walmart and Lexington Market each weekend, where she also liked to listen to jazz music. She enjoyed getting her hair done regular and underwent much stress when it was not done timely. She was a regular reader of The Upper Room magazine and Bible after her granddaughter, Aleah signed her up for a subscription..

Mildred's life mission was commitment to hard work and being kind to all people, no matter what their position in life. She had a strong character and it was very important to her to do the right thing. Her greatest quality was her love for others.

She was a fiercely independent person who was very concerned about not causing other people to be inconvenienced, especially during her illness. She was also a quiet person, who said more through her actions than verbally. She was a good listener and had a great sense of humor.

The rose was her favorite flower and she really was like a fine rose.

She leaves to mourn: her son, Edgar; her daughter-in-law, Karen; seven grandchildren, Timothy, Rasheena, Erik, Allen, Ernest, Keith and Aleah Jones; one great-grandchild, two nephews three nieces and friends Special thanks are given to the Schapiro family, who extended love and care to her for over fifty years.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Even though I never personally met Ms. Mildred, I do know that this is a painful time. However, you can be comforted by the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promised at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this, but the hour is coming in which all those in the Memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." Yes we have a real hope of seeing our loved ones again because of the wonderful gift that Jesus gave us by means of his ransom.
