

Mildred Payne

September 7, 1920 - November 22, 2013

In my Father's house there are many mansions...

MILDRED L. PAYNE was the daughter of the late Frances and George Clarkson. Mildred was born on September 7, 1920 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on November 22, 2013. She was the fifth of nine siblings.

Mildred received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

She was a woman of many trades. She was a seamstress, hair stylist, professional cook and baker, as well as a domestic engineer and a certified nursing assistant.

In 1967, after the death of her sister Dorothy, she became a second mother to her nieces and nephews. In 1969 she became a devoted foster mother to her daughter Wanda Taylor

Mildred was a life-long member of Eastern United Methodist Church, where she served in various organizations within the church.

Mildred enjoyed traveling, watching television, listening to gospel music and socializing with friends and family. She also took the time to give positive advice to those who needed spiritual guidance

Mildred leaves to mourn: her daughter, Wanda; and grandson, Taylor Griffin; stepdaughter, Toni Ware; and granddaughter, Sheena Ware; two devoted nieces, Frances Hill and Elsie Hill; four devoted nephews, Louis, William, George and Delroy Hill; a loving brother-in-law, Robert Wright; and nephew, (Piggy) J. Payne; a host of other relatives and friends.
