

Mildred Sturdivant

June 9, 1927 - November 20, 2008

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Mildred Sturdivant

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mrs. Sturdivant. My family and I have received much comfort from the Bible during our various times of bereavement. One of my favorite scriptures is John 5:28,29- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." My you receive much comfort and strength every time you think of this wonderful resurrection hope.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Mildred. It is hard to accept the loss of a loved one. Jehovah God can help us handle any situation if we put full trust in him. He gives us hope for our dead loved ones in the form of a resurrection...John 5:28,29 advises, "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out... Trust in Jehovah and put your faith in his promise.##imported-begin##Debi##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ For Mrs. Mildred Sturdivant and her family; I remain in your debt for all the kindness and inspiration during my formative years. Mother Mildred was a powerful community leader and, most importantly, a caring and responsible parent. To all of Mildred's children and grandchildren, you were blessed to have such a fine upstanding member of your family who truly understood the meaning of commitment and eternal love. To Mr. Sturdivant and other surviving loved ones, remember that Mildred drew her strength from the word of God and your love. Thus, let us all honor her memory. Thank you Mrs. Sturdivant! Love, Darrin##imported-begin##Darrin C. Milling##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM