

Mildred Helen Taylor

April 6, 1929 - November 30, 2019

Mildred H. Taylor was one of seven siblings. She was born on April 6, 1929 In Canton Ohio, to Henry and Queenie Bryant. She passed peacefully prior to fighting stage 4-kidney disease at Bon View Nursing Home Facility. Mildred attended public school in her early years in Richmond, Virginia. Mildred was a hard working person in her lifetime. Mildred was married to Sam Taylor for many years before his passing. Sam was the love of her life. She felt so alone without him. Mildred was a God fearing woman with bold faith. She ministered to so many people. She also taught the word of God to the elderly in several nursing homes throughout the city,. The nursing homes were never the same again. Mildred was a very sassy, stylish and foxy woman with a memorable laugh. Mildred joined Mount Olive Baptist Church in June 2013 and served as an Associate Minister. Mildred leaves to cherish her memory her two grandsons, Derek Lemon, Corey (Necole) Lemon; four great granddaughters, Siana, Tamia, Jasmine and Jada Lemons; two sisters: Bernice Bryant, Henrietta Buckingham; one brother, Orion Laney and a host of relatives and friends. Among them was her devoted niece, Lucille Buckingham; and devoted friend, James Williams.

“ A year or so ago we visited Aunt Mildred while on a trip from St Louis to Richmond. We laughed and joked about everything. She walked us to our car at the end of the visit and as we drove away we saw her in our rearview mirror dancing and waving goodbye. We will always remember her smile and her good nature. We truly loved her. We wish you a good journey Aunt Mildred.
