“ I send my deep sympathy to the family and friends of Mildred. May you be comforted and strengthened by our loving heavenly father who cares so much for us. 1st Peter 5:7 When we face the death of a loved one we can reflect on such scriptures as this one found at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people. Soon family, there will be no more sickness or death on this earth, because Isaiah 25:8 tells us that Jehovah will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." As for the dead, they will be ressurected back to life. Acts 24:15 says that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. May you be comforted by the hope of seeing your loved one again, and may the precious times you shared with her bring fond memories to your hearts.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
