

Mildred R. Whiting

November 16, 1930 - October 21, 2015

MILDRED R. WHITING (JOHNSON), daughter of the late William and Louise Johnson, was born on November 16, 1930 in Baltimore, Maryland. She went home to be with the lord on October 21, 2015 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education through the Baltimore City Public School system and graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar Senior High School in Baltimore, Maryland.

Mildred accepted Christ at an early age in 1947 was baptized at Oak Street A.M.E. Church in Baltimore, Maryland.

She married the late Edgar Hopkins Whiting Jr. on September 24, 1955. she had four children: Patricia ,Barbara, William and Brenda.

She became a full time employee of Union Memorial Hospital and later served for twenty-four years as a certified Dietitian at Good Samaritan Hospital until she retired in May 1992.

Mildred was a caring, loving wife, mother and grandmother who enjoyed solving puzzles, traveling, and gardening. She loved the color pink and elephants and would remind everyone by saying, "it must have trunks up". She made lasting friendships no matter where she went, even on first encounters. She was a petite woman with a big personality who valued quality time with those she loved and had a great sense of humor. Her laughter was infectious and people were drawn to her authenticity. She was a loyal friend , honest confidant and reliable supporter. During her extended time at the Good Samaritan Nursing Center, she could often be seen encouraging others by giving a “thumbs up” with a smile. She was loved and honored by her family and will sincerely be missed by all.

Preceding her in death were her husband, son, William Whiting and daughter Brenda Whiting, she leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Patricia Briscoe and Barbara Denton- Jones (Marcus) of Virginia Beach, Virginia; eight grandchildren, eighteen great grandchildren and six great great grandchildren; one sister, Marie Whiting; one brother , James Johnson; devoted family friend, Cathy Brown; nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The Whiting Family. May you find peace and comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "death will be brought to nothing". His Word also assures us of the resurrection hope. Our prayers are with your family.
