“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God's original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, "Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart," says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn't it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ I extend my heartfelt sympathy to your family for the loss of your loved one. Death is so unfair, and it's so very hard to deal with. We all long for relief, and a time when death will be no more. This was never God's purpose for people. He desires all to live life eternally in peace and happiness. One day his grand and glorious pupose will come to fullfillment. Daniel 12,2 lets us know that many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up. One day this tragic world we are living in will be gone. A new world of peace will soon take it's place, and in that world there will be no more tears, pain, or death. Jehovah says aat Isaiah 25,8 that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Please find comfort in his word, the bible, as you remember the good times you shared with Millard.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of the death of your family member Millard. I'm sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
