December 23, 1911 - April 22, 2007

The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be four score years, yet is their strength labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off and we fly away. Psalm 90A Prayer of Moses the Man of God God in His infinite wisdom and love designed the universe and all that would abide in it. Only God determines the length of man's days. In the Heavens, God designed a child and called his name MILLER. On December 23, 1911, God called forth the angels to declare the birth of a son to Willie and Camilla Stevenson. Only God would know the longevity of life that would be bestowed upon this man of God. The days of his years would be fourscore years and fifteen. On April 22, 2007, Miller made his peaceful flight back to the heavens to take his rest in the arms of his creator. Miller was born on a farm in Keysville, VA. He was the fifth of six children. He and his siblings were raised in a Christian home. His parents laid the foundation for a strong Christian life and Miller accepted Christ at an early age. He joined Antioch Baptist Church in Virginia. At the age of seventeen, Miller moved to Baltimore, Maryland and immediately sought a church home. He joined Enon Baptist Church and later joined Sharon Baptist Church. Miller enjoyed a good sermon and good gospel music. Miller's parents recognized that in addition to a strong religious background, their son would need a good education. They made sure he received a good education in the Public School System in Charlotte County, VA. May the favor of the Lord our God rest upon us; establish the work of our hands for us- yes, establish the work of our hand. Psalm 90:17 Miller was taught the importance of work. He believed in working hard and doing the best job you can. Miller was a dedicated and committed employee at the Bethlehem Steel Corporation as a Crane Operator. He was well liked and respected by all who had the pleasure of working with him. Miller retired in 1972 after 43 years of superior service. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. Ephesians 5:31 On July 10, 1948, Miller married the love of his life, Mattie H. Chappell. They joined as one flesh and remained so for 58 wonderful years. His devotion and love for his wife is exceeded only by his love of the three children born to this union. Miller was the proud father of Arnold, Deborah and Dudley. All that he did, he did for his family. He left a strong legacy. He taught them to live a life of good character; to love family and friends; to have compassion for others; to live a life of integrity and great faith. Miller taught by example. Nothing made him beam more than to see his children pass his life's lessons on to their children. Miller had a bounding love for all of his grandchildren and grieved the early death of his two grandsons, Earl and Tony Stevenson. Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain a heart of wisdom. Psalm 90:12 Miller was a gentle giant and a leader in the eyes of his family. His home was a welcome haven to anyone in need. Miller was a man of few words; but the words he spoke were always loving and honest, while softened with a twist of good humor. He could always make you laugh no matter the situation. His humor and great faith were essential elements to his long healthy life. He refused to be a burden to his wife or children. He was very capable of caring for his needs, even preparing his daily breakfast. He took great pleasure reminding everyone that breakfast was the most important meal of the day! Miller enjoyed fishing, boating, gardening, attending auctions and visiting family. His favorite past time was sharing stories of his childhood on the farm with anyone who dropped by for a visit. ... his eye was not dim nor his natural force abated. Deuteronomy 34:7 We did not ask for it to be over, but then again, we did not ask for it to begin. Miller lived a wonderful life full of love and joy. He leaves to celebrate their memory: his beloved wife, Mattie H. Stevenson; devoted children, Arnold L. Stevenson (Yvette), Deborah S. Whitaker (Ryland, Sr. ) , and Dudley H. Stevenson, Sr.; loving grandchildren, Monica, Ryland, Jr., Aaron, Dudley, Jr. and Jayia; caring sister, Christine Robinson (Houston, Texas); dedicated brother- in- law, Freddie Chappell (Hortense); and a host of nieces, nephews , cousins and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. Why do we die? Many people have asked that question the world over. The bible holds the answer to why we die, and even more importantly; what God purposes to do about it. Romans 5,12 tells us why we die. It simply states, "That is why through one man (Adam), sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned. Adam passed this sorrowful legacy down to us, and only the ransom sacrifice of our Saviour Christ Jesus, could undo the effects of sin and death, and bring us back into an approved condition with our heavenly father, Jehovah God. That is why the bible says at 1st Corinthians 15,45, "It is ever so written: "The first man Adam became a living soul. "The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. The last Adam, christ Jesus will one day call, and the dead will hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs." John 5,28,29. May you find comfort from our loving father, Jehovah and his son, Jesus Christ during your time of grief. One day, if we exercise faith, we will see the fulfillment of these promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
