

Mills J. Higgins

December 25, 1925 - October 5, 2002

Mills Jack Higgins was one of 11 children born to the late Emma and Troy Higgins. He was born on December 25, 1925 in Baltimore, MD. He departed this life on October 5, 2002 after a lengthy illness. Mills was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was WWII veteran who was honorably discharged from the Marine Corp. in 1946. In 1947 he married Vernetta "Lilly" Daye and from that union came five children, including Melanie who preceded him in death. Mills was baptized at Macedonia Baptist Church and his family later became members as well. He continued to attend Macedonia throughout the years until failing health prevented his attendance. Mills was a hard worker who was known to work two jobs at times to support his growing family. He retired after more than 25 years with the U.S. Postal Service in 1987. He was a favorite uncle to all his many nieces and nephews. He believed in being punctual and had a memory like a steel trap. He remembered everything. He liked classical music and loved TV and could often be found smoking his favorite cigars. He leaves to cherish his memory his children: Francine Randall, Bernetta "Bernie" Higgins, Deveraux "Debbie" Feaster, Stephen Higgins and his "other" daughter Tammy Ferron, four grandchildren, Michele Lyles, Jayson Higgins, John "BJ" Feaster, III and Jeanine Feaster, one great grandchild, My'Kel Dorsey, two sons-in-law, Wayne Randall and John Feaster, his sister, Lillian Loving and a host of nieces, nephews and other family and friends.
