“To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what’s more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is to come.###imported-begin###Sausha S.###imported-end###

“ My condolences to the family of Milton. It can be such a shock when we lose a loved one, and the grief we feel can definitely be overwhelming. Please remember that our dear heavenly father is always there for us to surround us with his love and comfort; because he cares so much for us and understands the pain we are feeling. 1st Peter 5,7 The bible says that Jehovah is a God of love, 1st John 4:8. Being so full of love he doesnot desire any of us to die or lose a loved one in death, and he views death as a terrible enemy. That is why he promises at 1st Cor 15:26, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." As for the dead, they are in his vast memory, and one day all those who are in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of his son Jesus, and they will come out of those tombs to life everlasting, John 5:28,29. May you find much comfort and strength in the wonderful hope of the ressurection to help you to cope in the days to come.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###
