“ I am sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The scriptures give us great comfort in these trying times. One such scripture is found at Isaiah 66:13 where it says “Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting YOU people; Please draw this comfort from the God of all comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).###imported-begin###Sophia Briscoe###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Our family finds much comfort from the Bible, especially during times of grief. One such comforting scripture is Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." The Bible assures us that when our loved ones "wake up", are raised from the dead, the earth will be a beautiful paradise as Jesus Christ has promised. (Please read Matthew 5:5, Luke 23:43 and Revelation 21:3-5) May these divinely inspired promises give you comfort and strength.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry that you lost your deat loved one. Death is such a tragedy for us to have to deal with. We miss our loved one so much. We miss their beautiful smile and their loving comtribution to our lives. Death is something God never wanted to happen, and he purposes to end it very soon by means of his kingdom arrangement. That is what we pray for when we recite the Lord"s prayer that his kingdom will come and his will will be done on earth just as it is in heaven Surely there is pece and happiness in heaven and that is what we need here on earth. Also an end to sickness and death Soon God"s promises will be a reality. Rev.21,3,4##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##
