

Milton Roseborough Sr

July 2, 1942 - May 17, 2020

MILTON ROSEBOROUGH, SR. son of the late Sammy Lee Roseborough and Bessy Mae Roseborough was born on July 2, 1942 in Chester, South Carolina. He passed away on May 17, 2020 after suffering several illnesses for many years.

Milton received his education in Baltimore Public Schools System. Throughout the years he held several jobs. Before meeting his wife Dorothy Norris. They were joined in marriage April 7, 1962. From that union came four children, Milton Roseborough Jr., Martin Lee Roseborough, Teresa Holman Michael and Anthony Roseborough. To provide for his family he went to work at Bethlehem Steel Shipbuilding Corporation. Upon leaving there he started his own business, Rosey Janitorial Service.

Milton was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses in July 7, 1973, serving Jehovah for more than 30 years.

Milton (Rosey) as he was popularly known. Had a real bubbly personality. Always making jokes. Especially with his daughter-in-law Shawn. Calling her "Fidget". His grandchildren described him as being hilarious, having wisdom and strong-willed. He also loved gardening, grilling, fishing and loved to dance. His favorite foods were strawberry shortcake, strawberry cheesecake, steak and clams.

But Rosey also had a serious side to him. When it came to work and life. He showed his kids what could be accomplish with hard work. And taught them about life from wisdom he acquired throughout the years.

He is preceded in death by his four siblings, Donald Roseborough, Lindsey Roseborough, Dorothy Brooks and Raymond Roseborough.

Rosey leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Dorothy Roseborough; three sons, Milton Roseborough Jr., Martin Lee Roseborough and Michael Anthony Roseborough; one daughter, Teresa Holman; two sisters, Sandra Braxton and Cathy Pettaway; one brother, Stanley Roseborough; two daughters-in-law, Shawn Roseborough and Antoinetta Roseborough; one son-in-law, Kevin Holman; grandchildren, Shabria Baylor, Shannon Baylor, Sharonda Baylor, Melissa Roseborough, Mario Roseborough and Martin Roseborough Jr.; great-grands, long time friend, Tyrone Skinner; many other nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.

Wow it breaks my heart to find this obituary. I manage a automotive repair shop and tonight I'm getting my floors done. And all I've been thinking about is Rosey. I met him in 1998 in Baltimore at Goodyear where inwas a store manager and Rosey and his son did my floors. I loved Rosey so much. Every store I managed I brought him along with me. He would make me laugh store much. We would call me fat boy and laugh so loud. I'd Rosey you gotta be about 9 months pregnant with that big ol belly you got when you gonna drop that kid lol. Man we laugh all the time. 23 years later I'm sitting here in a shop in PA getting my floors done thinking about my sweet friend. We lost touch so many years ago. So I decided to search him online and came to this obituary. My hearts breaks 💔 tonight readying this. If only I would have search one short year sooner we could have shared a few more laughs. Heaven got a real angel with this kind soul. Rest in peace big belly. I'll never forget you. Your friend Donny

“ Hey Granddaddy I miss you dearly...I really could talk to you more than ever right now. There's so much you've missed but maybe that's for the better...but I know a lot of things would be a whole lot better and different if you were here granddaddy. I'll just leave it at that for now cause the tears are falling. I'll come back later to talk. I love you grandddaddy. My fellow cancer ❤️

“ Condolences and sympathy from the Bannerman family. We grieve with you. I still remember growing up on Main Street in Turner Station and riding along with Milton as he spun the wheel with the wheel spinner. I remember my brother and I going with Stanley Roseborough to visit him when he lived in East Baltimore. But Main Street was always the tight connection, sharing food from cookouts and teenagers sneaking their first beer out of an unwatched cooler. Everybody working together on the Afro Clean Block and the big parties that followed. We hope the good family memories give you comfort and you find serenity in his legacy.

*Stanley, Sandra, Cathy,
We love you.*
