

Milus Lee White

September 10, 1930 - September 11, 2001

Milus Lee White, Sr., was born to the late Margaret Jones and Frank White, Sr., on September 10, 1930 in Freeman County, Virginia. He departed his life on September 11, 2001 in Mercy Hospital from a long and lengthy illness. As a young man he ventured out on his own and left Virginia. He came to Baltimore at the age of 16. He lived with his oldest and dearest brother, who preceded him in death, Douglas White, who was like a father. He attended public school here in Baltimore, Maryland where he received his education. His first job, also at the age of 16, was as a salesman for the well-known Epstein's Department Store. In the late forties he began his life long occupation as a construction worker. For years he was employed by the Whiting and Turner Construction Company, retiring in 1992 as Cement Finisher. Milus Lee was known to everyone as a great leader and a great provider to his family. He was well known and loved by lots of people. He was a strong, courageous man commanding respect by all that came into contact with him. His favorite pastime was hanging out at Lexington Market with many of his lifelong friends laughing and talking about the good old days. All who were acquainted with him knew there was nothing that he wouldn't do for them. He was willing to help out whenever needed. In 1949, he met and later married Miss Lucy Dubose. Seven children were born from this union. He leaves to mourn his wife, Lucy White, and children, William, Louise, Belinda, Milus, Jr., Gwendolyn, Margaret, Patrick, the twin girls, Veronica and Verna, a brother, George White, three sisters-in-law, Arlene White, Doris White and Dorothy

White, twenty-four grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, a special niece Peggy, and a very special, dear friend Karen Tarter.
